

Across Dorset this Autumn get ready for a celebration of the best in international music, theatre, dance, art and performance, as the county comes alive with a whole month of Festivals to enjoy.

Whatever your taste and no matter your budget, there is truly something for everyone to love. From high-flying circus on Poole Quay, to a vibrant street-arts programme in Bournemouth town centre, and historical walks among some of our most beautiful coastlines.

And with many events free of charge, there is no better time to celebrate all that Dorset has to offer.

Portland 8 – 16 September

Love new experiences, exploring beautiful landscapes and unique artwork created by artists from across the globe? b-side festival returns to the Isle of Portland for nine days of art that shines the spotlight on the rugged island's intriguing history, geology and landscape.

This year we will take you on a journey around Portland, giving you special access to secret places and forgotten sites including light art in secret underground military tunnels, a trip around an alternative reality of Portland, a chance to dance your way around the island with Miss High Leg Kick, plus brand new work by over 20 artists made especially for b-side.
